

CHAPTER 83.

[Published March 8, 1865.]

AN ACT to amend section one of chapter twenty-four of the general laws of 1865, entitled "an act to change the time for holding the general terms of the circuit court for the sixth judicial circuit."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

General terms. SECTION 1. Section one of chapter twenty-four of the general laws of eighteen hundred and sixty-five, is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: "Section 1. The general terms of the circuit court for the sixth judicial circuit, shall hereafter be held as follows: In the county of Clark, on the first Monday of March, and the first Monday of September, in each year; in the county of Jackson, on the second Monday of March, and the second Monday of September, in each year; in the county of Monroe, on the fourth Monday of March, and the fourth Monday of September, in each year; in the county of La Crosse, on the fourth Monday of April, and the second Monday of November, in each year; in the county of Vernon, on the second Monday of April, and the first Monday of December, in each year; in the county of Buffalo, on the second Monday of May, and the second Monday of October, in each year; in the county of Trempealeau, on the third Monday of May, and the third Monday of October, in each year."

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 2, 1865.
